State educational standard of higher education. Classifier of higher education areas and specialties

This document regulates the classification of higher education areas and specialties in the Republic of Uzbekistan in accordance with the current and future needs of society and the individual, as well as the labor market situation and global trends in the training of professional personnel in newly demanded areas of higher education, primarily in the field of high and innovative technologies.

Chapter 1. General provisions

1. The following definitions are used in this document:

Classifier of higher education areas and specialties (hereinafter referred to as the classifier) - a systematized list of undergraduate education areas and master's degree specialties for the training of higher education personnel, presented in the appendix to this document;

Higher education is a basic higher education stage that provides in-depth knowledge, qualifications, and skills, with a duration of study of at least three years;

Specialty - a higher education level in a specific specialty based on an appropriate bachelor's degree, with a duration of at least one year.

2. The classifier is a component of the unified information coding and classification system of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

3. The classifier is based on the principles of the International Standard Classification of Education (ISCE 2011) and the ISCE: Fields of Education and Vocational Training (ISCE-S 2013) introduced by UNESCO.

Chapter 2. Scope of the classifier

4. At all stages of management of economic sectors of the Republic of Uzbekistan, in the analysis of labor market needs, in assessing the demand for personnel in economic sectors, in the processes of state regulation, strategic planning and management of the education sector, in the development of educational programs, as well as in the practice of international relations involving state and non-state higher education organizations of our country, in the process of automated processing and exchange of information:

management of admissions and training of specialists;

formation of statistical reports on the training of specialists and their employment;

Comparison of education statistics of the Republic of Uzbekistan and other countries;

It is used to solve the problems of harmonizing the education system of the Republic of Uzbekistan with the international educational structure.

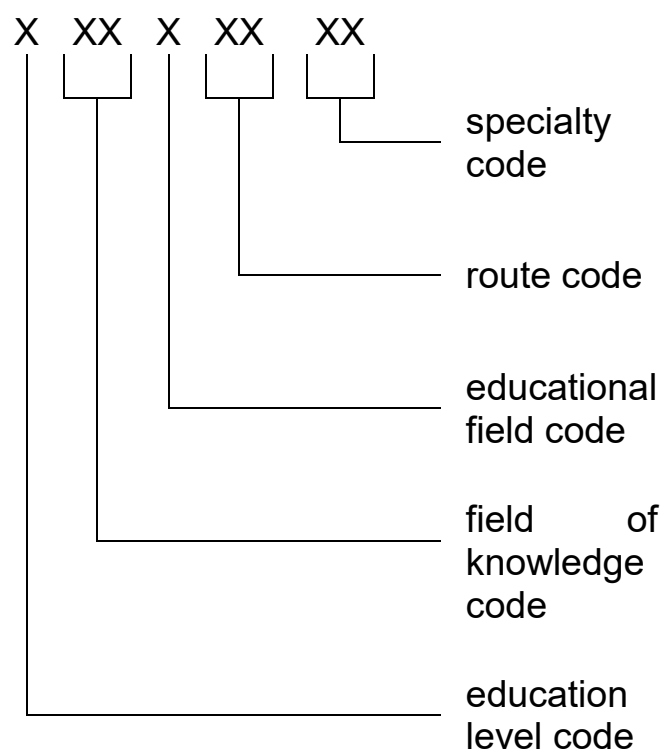

Chapter 3. Definitions

5. The classifier covers the following areas of knowledge:

1) education;

- 2) arts and humanities;
- 3) social sciences, journalism and information;
- 4) business, management and law;
- 5) natural sciences, mathematics and statistics;
- 6) information and communication technologies;
- 7) engineering, processing and construction industries;
- 8) agriculture, forestry, fisheries and veterinary medicine;
- 9) healthcare and social security;
- 10) services.

6. In the classifier, educational levels, fields of knowledge and education, higher education areas and specialties are designated by eight-digit codes. Code numbers are entered as follows:

According to the International Standard Classification of Education (ISCE 2011), the level of education is designated by the number "6" for undergraduate programs and "7" for master's programs. For example, the code for bachelor's programs is 60110100, 60210200, etc., and the code for master's programs is 70110101, 70210202, etc.

7. A specialization is a set of necessary knowledge, skills and competencies acquired and awarded by a graduate of a higher education institution according to the curriculum and educational programs of the 6th level (stage) to perform a certain type of professional activity and enter the next stage of education within the framework of the academic degree of "bachelor".

A specialty is a set of necessary knowledge, skills, and competencies that ensure the performance of a certain type of professional activity within the framework of the "master's" academic degree, acquired and awarded by a graduate of a higher education institution according to the curriculum and educational programs of the 7th level (stage).
